

'Amaryllis'

BURGUNDY, FRANCHE-COMTÉ & BEAUJOLAIS

6 nights | Sunday departures | Charter sailings only
Departs from the Paris hotel chosen by the charter group: Sunday, 12:30 pm

'Amaryllis,' a luxury product of Orient-Express Hotels, Trains & Cruises, spends her season exploring some of the most romantic regions of France. From Burgundy & Franche-Comté, the heart of France's best-known wine region, she ventures south through Beaujolais to Lyon, the second city of France.

Offering the ultimate in luxury, sophisticated 'Amaryllis' has a comfortable and tastefully appointed salon with large picture windows and a formal dining room for memorable candlelit dinners. Comfortable sun loungers and a heated pool beckon her guests on deck to watch the passing scenery.

The four spacious cabins can be made up as either king or twin and are stylishly decorated in traditional style with a mixture of contemporary and antique Louis XV and XVI furniture, complimented by occasional tables from Li Puma of Florence. The en suite marble bathrooms have twin basins, heated towel racks, make-up mirrors and bathrobes.

BURGUNDY, FRANCHE-COMTÉ & BEAUJOLAIS

Burgundy and Franche-Comté share a rich and exciting history. Their charming villages and famous wineries entice visitors to relax and enjoy.

Beaujolais (actually an area within greater Burgundy) is a legendary region that once hosted powerful Benedictine monks at the spiritual center of Cluny.
